APPLICATION FOR A REPORT FROM THE EXAMINER

(Must be sent to the Society with the Students' worked papers)

Teachers may apply for an Examiner's Report on the standard of the work submitted by students in any one class or group. Application for such a report must be made when the papers are submitted for assessment. That will avoid having to ask Examiners to make papers a second time in order to prepare a report on them.

Application is to be made on this form, which must be accompanied by the prescribed fee of $20.00.

The report will be sent separately and under seal to the teacher making the application, whose name and address are to be given below.
